OCTOBER 2005

From the Desk of the President

You know, I was going to start this letter with a greeting to our happy campers but I figure Peter Reid has it covered. Then I was going to make some outlandish statement on God's wrath but we had lunch and she said that sending hurricanes into populated areas wasn't really her department. Seems there is a squabble in Parks and Recreations, something about painted rocks and an ego maniac.

I did live in New Orleans back in the early eighties; why I am still alive is still a great mystery. Great mysteries isn't her department either. I was out of control back then but I did take time out to fall madly in love with that city. It was strange to see a dead body on the news just blocks from where I lived near City Park. New Orleans is a city of intense moments and I have sights, sounds and smells etched in my mind forever. I know where Monkey Hill is, I have ridden the bus that takes you to the Cemeteries instead of a street, I always checked out the driver before boarding. I survived Full Moon Madness at Jewels Tavern on Decatur and, visiting a friend at Mercy Hospital, I saw KS lesions on a young mans face for the first time. There is magic in that city but watch out for broken glass.

I know the next time I go back it will be very different; I also pray Disney doesn't get their hands on it. If I was in charge of rebuilding New Orleans the first person I would beg to help me would be Teresa Heinz Kerry and then I would ask a dollar from every person that did something out of the norm on those streets during Mari Gras. I wonder about some of the faces I remember, but I don't worry about old friends, they all died a long time ago in another disaster.

Laissez les bon temp roulez! Which means "Let the Good Times Roll"!

Hugs,
Ed Burlison

Quarterly Meeting
Sunday, Oct 23!

The View from Buzzards' Peak

Welcome to Back to the Woods!

Welcome

I am glad you made it to the Landsite. We have a great weekend planned with of entertainment, cocktail parties, and food. Contained in this issue of Bear Briefs is a run schedule of event. I hope you will participate in as many as you like. A good run is only as good as the attendees that make it. The myriads of volunteers who have prepared the site for your enjoyment have only set the scene. It is now up to you to make it your own. Beware! If I see you not having fun, then I will personally call you out and get you involved.

Be Yourself

The TCC landsite is a place where you can be yourself. In the outside world, there is discrimination, anger, and mistrust. Within these gates, it is open to all people. Run naked through the campground! Yodel at the moon while wearing a dress! Or go off and clear your head and meditate on Buzzards' Peak. Walk while embracing your partner and stare at the stars above. Check out the compound for fellowship. All is possible in this magical place.

Who is here?

We have attendees from all over the State and a few from farther away. Many are from other member clubs. In addition to The HOT Bears, we have members of Trinity River Bears, Cowtown Leathermen, The Bad Boys, Austin Gay Nudists, Lonestar Leathermen, Firedancers, TCC Independents, and others. About 50% of attendees are folks who have never been to TCC Landsite before ("Landsite Virgins!"). So, while you are here, introduce yourself and make a new friend.

The TCC regulars

There are the regulars here as well. Hal and Jim will be cooking Breakfast and Lunch on Saturday. Jim is the guy with the impressive white beard. Past permanent residents of the landsite, they are regulars attendees and cook at a many of the runs. They live locally, so if you need anything, just ask them. Another long time resident of the campground is Diane. Past Vice Chairman of TCC, she participates in most of the runs. Ask Diane to share some stories of past runs and the early days of the landsite. She is one of most open-minded people I have ever known and has a long established history with alternative lifestyles here in Texas. She truly has gone her own way. You will also meet Danny, current TCC Chairman. His partner Todd is doing the music for the weekend. Danny is also a long time member of TCC and will no doubt give us a greeting and participate in as many games as he is able. Bo and his partner are in the "Taj Mahal" above the Pole Barn. No doubt that Bo will be dressed in his cowboy boots & pink thong or an outrageous outfit for his cocktail party or while attending Saturday dinner. His campsite has more colored lamé than a dress for Aretha Franklin! You will meet David Parker at check-in. Current Treasurer of TCC, he is the owner of Bricks II in Houston. If you find yourself in a game of Dominoes with him, watch out! — he is fierce! Dan Murdock is ex-military and will be policing the place for trash and emptying the large garbage cans all through out the weekend. As a strong member of Land Management, he knows where things are and can answer most of your questions when it comes to this place. He was part of the early group of folks who started TCC over 20 years ago.

WHAT HAPPENS AT THE TCC LANDSITE, STAYS AT THE LANDSITE!

While here, you will see things that might be unexpected or not part of the "normal" world outside our gates. Give room to people who are enjoying themselves— or ask join in on the silliness. Exercise some discretion after the weekend is over. Take home some good memories and tell your friends the kind of time you had— but leave out some of the details (and names) and let their imagination fill them in. Curiosity is good— and perhaps it will motivate them to attend Lonestar, Back to the Woods, or another run next year!

Again, Welcome to the HOT Bears: Back to the Woods. Our first run at the TCC Landsite is going to be a blast!

WOOF!
